INSTRUCTIONS

This application may only be used by financial institutions and vehicle dealers who are licensed by the Department of Banking. Individuals or businesses not licensed by the Department of Banking that are listed as the lienholder on the Pennsylvania Certificate of Title, must follow Option 1, Judgement and Execution, on Form MV-217.

NOTE: Purchase price includes any lien or other obligation assumed by the purchaser. Enter total purchase price in Section G, including installation charges on contract sales of mobile homes. If purchase price is less than 80 percent of the stated fair market value of that vehicle, attach a completed Form MV-3, on which the applicant and seller must explain the reason why the vehicle is being sold below fair market value.

NOTE: For a listing of counties that participate in the Fee for Local Use, refer to the "Fee for Local Use - Participating Counties" Fact Sheet, found on our website at www.dmv.pa.gov.

The following checklist contains items that must be in the possession of the reposessor and available upon request. These items, other than the certificate of title, do not need to be submitted with the application.

If Block 1 - Renunciation, under Section D is checked:

Certificate of title will be issued in the name of the lienholder upon certification the items listed below are in the lienholder's possession:

- Certificate of title. (NOTE: The certificate of title must be attached.)
- The original or an acceptable copy of the agreement, which is the basis of the right to repossess.
- The original or an acceptable copy of the debtor's statement of renunciation.

If Block 2 - Non-Judicial Sale or Repossession and Retention (Motor Vehicle Sales and Finance Act), under Section D is checked:

Certificate of title will be issued in the name of the lienholder or the name of the purchaser at the sale (who may be the lienholder) upon certification that the items listed below are in the lienholder's possession:

- Certificate of title. (NOTE: The certificate of title must be attached.)
- The original or an acceptable copy of the agreement, which is the basis of the right to repossess.
- The original or an acceptable copy of the notice of repossession and intent to sell delivered in person to the debtor, or sent by registered or certified mail to the last known address of the debtor. The notice:
 - (i) shall set forth the debtor's rights as to reinstatement of the contract, if the lienholder extends the privilege of reinstatement and redemption of the motor vehicle;
 - (ii) shall contain an itemized statement of the total amount required to redeem the motor vehicle by reinstatement or payment of the contract in full;
 - (iii) shall give notice to the buyer of the lienholder's intent to resell the motor vehicle at the expiration of 15 days from the date of mailing the notice;
 - (iv) shall disclose the place at which the motor vehicle is stored; and,
 - (v) shall designate the name and address of the person to whom the buyer shall make payment or upon whom he may serve notice.
- Bill of sale showing the date of sale, name of purchaser, make and VIN of the vehicle, if the purchaser is not the lienholder.

If Block 3 - Mobile Home, under Section D is checked:

Certificate of title will be issued in the name of the lienholder or the name of the purchaser at the sale (who may be the lienholder) of the mobile home upon certification that the items listed below are in the lienholder's possession:

- Certificate of title. (NOTE: The certificate of title must be attached.)
- The original or an acceptable copy of the agreement, which is the basis of the right to repossess.
- The original or an acceptable copy of the notice of intention to take action sent to the debtor by registered or certified mail at the address where the mobile home is located, at least 30 days prior to the repossession. The registered or certified mail receipt, or an acceptable copy must be attached. The notice shall clearly and conspicuously state:
 - (i) the particular obligation or security interest;
 - (ii) the nature of the default claimed;
 - (iii) the right of the installment buyer to cure the default and exactly what performance, including what sum of money, if any, must be tendered to cure default;
 - (iv) that the installment buyer may cure the default at any time before title to the mobile home is lawfully transferred from the installment buyer, which shall be at least 45 days after receipt of the notice; and,
 - (v) the method or methods by which the installment buyers ownership or possession of the mobile home may be terminated.

NOTE: Only a 15-day letter is required when the installment buyer/homeowner has abandoned or voluntarily surrendered the property.
- Bill of sale showing the date, name of purchaser, make and VIN of the mobile home, if the purchaser is not the lienholder.

NOTE: In questionable cases, PennDOT may require an applicant for certificate of title to execute an indemnification agreement or other forms as necessary.
